It is the objective of the Saint Jo Rodeo Queen Committee to find well-rounded young ladies to represent Saint Jo Riding Club as their rodeo queen. Competitors should possess good horsemanship skills and knowledge about rodeo and horses. They should be friendly and outgoing. They should wear current rodeo queen attire with special attention to grooming. One of the main jobs of royalty is to promote the sport of rodeo, especially Saint Jo Rodeo. All contestants must have a personal sponsor who will sponsor her for a $25 sponsorship fee. This sponsor's information and the $25 fee made payable to Saint Jo Riding Club must be postmarked by Friday, June 17, 2022 – ENTRY DEADLINE, and sent or hand-delivered to the Saint Jo Royalty Committee.

Poor sportsmanship by parents or competitors could result in disqualification at the judges' and/or Committee's discretion. Any complaints or concerns about this contest should be addressed to the Saint Jo Royalty Committee. Our committee is comprised of volunteers who work very hard to ensure the contest is fair and that competitors have a learning experience. Please understand that the committee does not select the winner. If a parent or competitor is disrespectful to a committee member, riding club member, or judge, she will not be eligible to run for Saint Jo Rodeo Queen and will be required to vacate the premises. We feel that this contest is much more than earning a title and a crown. We expect all young ladies and their parents/coaches to uphold themselves with poise and dignity. We also expect them to be courteous to their peers.

Saint Jo Rodeo Queen and Junior Queen Contest Rules

Categories*

Horsemanship (40%), Personality (25%), Appearance (25%), Ticket Sales (10%)

Horsemanship (40 points)

All contestants' horsemanship will be judged during the entire weekend including during the rodeo and parade. The horsemanship competition will begin at 8:00 a.m. on Friday, August 5, 2022. Contestants will be judged on a set horsemanship pattern and a free style pattern of contestant's choice. See horsemanship pattern for more details. All contestants must be dressed in appropriate western attire as noted in the AQHA handbook. Each contestant will have a short public interview session at the conclusion of her individual performance. Contestants will be judged on the pattern, freestyle, parade, grand entry and queen's run, and horse knowledge. Riding double is prohibited. Parents/coaches are not allowed to make any verbal cues, hand gestures, or any other signals while competitors are in the arena for their horsemanship pattern. Clapping should be done only after each competitor is finished.

Personality (25 points)

Intelligence and good common sense is a big factor in the PERSONALITY DIVISION. Education and conversational ability in professional rodeo, current events and other areas is vital, with special emphasis on grammar and enunciation. A contestant should radiate self-confidence, showing maturity, high moral standards, sincerity and integrity. Contestants should have the ability to project their personality, whether it be from horseback in an arena, on television, or before an audience. They should be able to appropriately interact with the crowd as well as their peers. Also considered are sense of humor, showmanship, ambition, desire, enthusiasm and a happy outlook on life in general.

Appearance (25 points)

In the APPEARANCE CATEGORY, contestants should be aware of what is current, fashionable attire and contestants should be knowledgeable on current trends in the western wear industry. No blue jeans will be allowed during the contest. Other appearance considerations include appropriate hat selection, cleanliness and crispness of hat crease, as well as personal attractiveness and grooming—to include neatness and cleanliness in every detail of the contestant's person and her attire. As with all contests, your appearance and personality will be judged at all times. Please be aware that online social media are viewed by the world and your account should portray you in a way that is conducive to being a queen. Photos and posts in poor taste will be considered a deduction in this area. Included in this contest will be an interview session between the judges and each contestant individually to be held at the brunch.

* Please understand that you are being judged in all categories except ticket sales from the time you drive onto the rodeo grounds Friday morning until the Saturday evening performance.

Ticket Sales (up to 10 points)

All contestants are required to sell a minimum of 75 rodeo tickets before the first night of the rodeo. Points will be given to the top three ticket saleswomen in each age division. In the case that there is only one contestant in any age division, that contestant must sell a minimum of 150 tickets to be eligible to receive the title and prizes. Ticket sales money and unsold tickets should be in an envelope and turned in at 8:00 a.m. at the horsemanship competition on Friday, August 5, 2022.

Last-minute check writing will be considered unsportsmanlike conduct and will be reported to judges. Once ticket money is turned over to the royalty committee, no tickets should be sold on rodeo grounds or in town on Friday or Saturday. Sold tickets may be left in a marked envelope at the will-call ticket booth. Ticket Sales will be the tiebreaker category in case of an overall tie.

1st place = 10 points

2nd place = 6 points

3rd place = 2 points

Crowning:

The new Rodeo Queen will be announced during Saturday night's performance. The previous year's rodeo queen and royalty committee will crown the queen following the contestants' run. Upon being crowned, the new Rodeo Queen will make her first formal queen's run.

Awards:

The following awards will be given to the Saint Jo Rodeo Queen:

- Scholarship: $1,000.00
- Trophy Saddle gift certificate: $800.00
- Trophy Buckle
- Rodeo Queen Sash
- Tiara Suitable for a Western Hat and Rodeo Queen

The following awards will be given to the Junior Queen:

- Trophy Saddle gift certificate: $800.00

Saint Jo Rodeo Queen & Junior Queen Horsemanship Pattern

Friday morning on Rodeo Weekend at Saint Jo Rodeo Arena

1. Be horseback and ready for your horsemanship patterns at 8:00 AM.
2. Horsemanship competition begins
 - a. Each contestant will perform the attached reining pattern. Please wait until your name is announced before entering the arena.
 - b. At the end of the reining pattern, contestant should turn facing the judges waiting for their signal.
 - c. Contestant will then use the arena for free-style time, to show the ability of horse and rider. Two-minute time limit. If you would like to use music, it must be on a device that can connect to our system and cued to the correct position. Please disable password and set to airplane mode. Please also attach a sticky note with the song chosen and the girl it belongs to.
 - d. Contestant will walk to the current queen and dismount.
 - e. Contestants will be asked public interview questions by the queen and the contestant will answer over the microphone.
3. After being released by the judges, contestant will remount, do a queen run and exit the arena.
4. Take care of your horse, but please come back and watch the rest of the competitors do their patterns and freestyle.

Please note that contestants will be judged on horsemanship throughout the rodeo performances as well. Please be on your horse and ready when being introduced during the performance.

It is a good gesture to be helpful to others at the rodeo. In recent years, contestants have helped with the kids' calf scramble and handed out candy to spectators. It would be nice to see our queen contestants do the same this year on Friday night. Saturday night the new royalty should be visible, greeting people, and being helpful as needed.

Horsemanship Pattern

Horse must walk or stop prior to starting pattern.

Beginning at the center of the arena facing the left wall or fence.

- 1. Beginning on the right lead, complete three circles to the right: the first circle small and slow; the next two circles large and fast. Change leads at the center of the arena.
- 2. Complete three circles to the left: the first circle small and slow; the next two circles large and fast. Change leads at the center of the arena.
- 3. Continue around previous circle to the right. At the top of the circle, run down the middle to the far end of the arena past the end marker and do a right rollback - no hesitation.
- 4. Run up the middle to the opposite end of the arena past the end marker and do a left rollback - no hesitation.
- 5. Run past the center marker and do a sliding stop. Back up to the center of the arena or at least 10 feet (3 meters). Hesitate.
- 6. Complete four spins to the right.
- 7. Complete four spins to the left. Hesitate to demonstrate the completion of the pattern.

Rider may drop bridle to the designated judge.
